

There are few cities in the world as beautiful as Venice. Opportunities of great photography abound. Exciting landscapes incorporating buildings, canals and gondolas are evident at every turn. Gondoliers sing opera as they glide past adding to the aesthetic ambience. The colours are breathtaking and the mood is intoxicating. Although there are myriads of tourists, the canals are unencumbered and free.

There are exquisite art galleries of famous Italian artists. Caneletto, Carpaccio and Tintoretto adorn the walls. The food is expensive but staying in a pension is still affordable. We spent a memorable week in Venice.

Accreditation

Doctors whose articles are published in Menopause Update are entitled to accreditation points. Authors need to complete the relevant form and submit it together with a copy of the published article to CPD Services. Once submitted, the article will be reviewed. First authors could earn ± 10 points and co-authors ± 5 points per article. Authors will then be sent a confirmation together with an invoice for R363 per article accredited.
